

Children's Rights and Responsibilities.

Rights

You have the right to:

- be SAFE and RESPECTED
- SPEAK UP or have someone speak for you
- be HEARD
- CONFIDENTIALITY and PRIVACY
Most of the time I will not tell other people what we talk about. Sometimes I will need to share information with your parents or another adult so we can help you or keep you safe
- ASK FOR HELP if you're having difficulties
- GIVE FEEDBACK

Responsibilities

You are expected for:

- USING GOOD MANNERS
- BEING RESPECTFUL
- ACTING SAFELY

If you are unable to follow these responsibilities, we may need to stop our session with you.
